 Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 628) or any provision of law enacted 9.2
 after the effective date of this title, unless such subsequently 9.3 enacted provision expressly cites this subsection, any department 9.4 or agency may transfer to or receive from the Agency any sum of money approved, in accordance with subsection (a) (1) above, by 9.5
 the Director of National Intelligence and the Director of the necessary to provide effective cover. Any funds generated 9.20 by any such proprietary in excess of the amount necessary 9.21 for its normal operational requirements shall be deposited by the Director into miscellaneous receipts of the Treasury. 9.22

(2) Whenever any Agency proprietary whose net value 9.24 exceeds $50,000, is to be liquidated, sold, or otherwise 9.25 disposed of, the Agency shall, as much in advance of the liquidation, sale, or other disposition of the proprietary 9.26 as practicable and subject to such security standards as the 9.27 Director and Attorney General shall agree upon, report the 9.28 circumstances of the intended liquidation, sale, or other 9.29 disposition to the Attorney General and the Comptroller General of the United States. Any proceeds from any 9.30 liquidation, sale, or other disposition of any Agency 9.31 proprietary, in whatever amount, after all obligations of the proprietary have been met, shall be deposited by the Director into miscellaneous receipts of the Treasury. 9.32

Act, no provision of law shall be construed to require the 9.46 Director or any other officer or employee of the United States to 9.47 disclose the organization, function, name, official title, salary, or affiliation with the Central Intelligence Agency of 9.48 any person employed by the Agency, or the number of persons 9.49 employed by the Agency, unless such provision specifically 9.50 breaches of the peace, to suppress affrays or unlawful 9.55 assemblies, and to enforce any rule or regulation the Director may promulgate for the protection of such installations and 9.56 grounds. The jurisdiction and police powers of such security 9.57 officers shall not, however, extend to the service of civil 9.58 foreign country or any foreign person visiting the United States under Agency auspices.

(b) (1) appoint and separate such personnel as it deems 9.66 advisable, without regard to the provisions of title 5, 9.67 United States Code, governing appointments to and separations from the competitive services, and fix the 9.68 compensation of such personnel without regard to the 9.69 provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of 9.70 that title, relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates, but at rates not in excess of the rate authorized 9.71 for Executive Schedule V by section 5315 of that title; 9.72

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the 9.74 Director may terminate the employment of any officer or 9.75 employee of the Central Intelligence Agency whenever the 10.1
Director considers such termination necessary or advisable in the interests of the national security of the United 10.2
States. The Director shall report to the Permanent Select 10.3
Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives 10.4
and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate, in a 10.5
timely manner, any exercise of the Director's authority under this paragraph.

(3) Executive schedule positions within the Agency 10.7
in addition to those of Director, General Counsel, and 10.8
Inspector General and any positions in the grades of GS-16, 10.9

separated under paragraph (1) or whose employment has been 10.13 terminated under paragraph (2) may seek or accept employment 10.14 by the Government if declared eligible for such employment by the United States Civil Service Commission, and that 10.15 Commission may move such officer or employee to a position 10.16 in the competitive civil service in the same manner as an 10.17 employee is transferred between two positions in the competitive service, provided that such Agency officer or 10.18 employee must have served with the Agency for at least one 10.19 year continuously immediately preceding separation or termination. 10.20

11.2

Sec. 322. (a) The Agency is authorized to procure such 11.6
property, services, equipment and facilities as may be necessary 11.7 to carry out its functions under this title. The provisions of 11.8 chapter 137, relating to the procurement of property and services, and chapter 139, relating to the procurement of 11.9
research and development services, of title 10, United States Code, shall apply to the procurement of property and research and 11.10 development services by the Agency under this title in the same 11.11 manner and to the same extent such chapters apply to the 11.12 procurement of property, services, and research and development 11.13 services by the agencies named in section 2302(a) of chapter 137 of title 10, except that the Director is authorized to waive the 11.15 the successful performance of any function of the Agency or to 11.17 protect the security of activities of the Agency. Any waiver 11.18 exercised by the Director under this section shall be reported to 11.19 the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the 11.20 Senate together with the reasons for exercising such waiver.

(b) The Agency is further authorized to procure property, 11.22 goods, or services, on the Agency's own behalf or on behalf of 11.23 any other entity of the Intelligence Community, in such a manner that the role of the Agency or such other entity is not apparent 11.24 or publicly acknowledged, if public knowledge that the Agency or such other entity is the procurer of the property, goods, or 11.25 services will inhibit or interfere with the secure conduct of an authorized intelligence function. The procurement authority 11.26 provided under this subsection may be exercised by the Agency notwithstanding any other provision of law and shall not be 11.27 modified, limited, suspended, or superseded by any provision of law enacted after the effective date of this title unless such 11.28 provision expressly cites this subsection.

(b) Whenever the Director determines such action to be 14.46 necessary in the interest of the national security, the 14.47 expenditure of funds appropriated or transferred to the Agency shall be accounted for solely on the certificate of the Director 14.48 and every such certificate shall be deemed a sufficient voucher 14.49 for the amount certified therein, but such expenditures may only 14.50 be for activities authorized by law. The Director shall report on all expenditures made under authority of this subsection on a 14.51 quarterly basis to the Committees on Appropriation of the Senate 14.52 and House of Representatives, to the Permanent Select Committee 14.53 on Intelligence of the House of Representatives, and to the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate. 14.54

(c) (1) The Director is authorized to establish and 14.56 maintain a fund to be known as the Contingency Reserve Fund 14.57 (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Reserve Fund") and to credit to such Reserve Fund only monies 14.58 specifically appropriated to the Central Intelligence Agency for such fund. The Director is authorized to expend funds 14.59 from the Reserve Fund in any fiscal year for the payment of 14.60 expenses incurred in connection with any national 14.61 intelligence activity, counterintelligence activity, or counterterrorism activity if--

(A) the withdrawal of funds from the Reserve 14.63 Fund and the proposed expenditure have been previously approved by the Office of Management and Budget; 14.64

(B) the Committee on Appropriations of the 14.66 House of Representatives, the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate, the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives, and the Select Committee on 14.67 Intelligence of the Senate have been notified of the 14.68 facts and circumstances regarding such withdrawal and 14.69 proposed expenditure at least 72 hours in advance of the withdrawal; except that in extraordinary 14.70 circumstances the President may authorize the 14.71 withdrawal of funds from the Reserve Fund without 14.72 prior notification to the appropriate committees of the Congress if the President notifies such committees 14.73 of the Congress within 48 hours after initiation of 14.74 the withdrawal, describes the activity for which such 14.75 funds have been or are to be expended, certifies to 15.1

such committees that prior notification would have 15.2 resulted in a delay which would have been harmful to 15.3
the United States, and discloses to such committees 15.4
the reasons why the delay would have been harmful.
The foregoing shall not be construed as requiring the 15.5
approval of any committee of the Congress prior to the 15.6 initiation of any such activity; and 15.7

(C) the money from the Reserve Fund is used 15.9 solely for the purpose of meeting requirements that 15.10 were not anticipated at the time the President's 15.11 budget was submitted to the Congress for such fiscal year, the purpose for which such money was used 15.12 requires protection from unauthorized disclosure, and 15.13 the activities to be funded are authorized by law. 15.14

(2) Monies from the Reserve Fund may be expended only 15.16 for the specific purpose for which the withdrawal was 15.17 approved under this subsection and any amount approved for 15.18 expenditure but not actually expended for the specific 15.19 purpose for which approved shall be returned to the Reserve 15.20 Fund.

(3) No money may be expended and no financial 15.22 obligation incurred for the initiation or major expansion of 15.23 any activity to be funded from the Reserve Fund unless such expenditure or financial obligation has been approved by the 15.24
Director and the Director of the Office of Management and 15.25 Budget;

(4) Any activity funded from the Reserve Fund that 15.28 continues after the end of the fiscal year in which it was funded by monies from the Reserve Fund shall be funded 15.29 thereafter through the regular budgetary process at the 15.30 earliest practicable time.
